Summer is Over

It's time to begin thinking about the fleeing to warmer climates. In the Midwest, leaves are turning color and beginning to fall to the ground. I don't envy homeowners who have large yards and have to rake the leaves before the snow falls, nor do I envy the thought of having to shovel that snow!

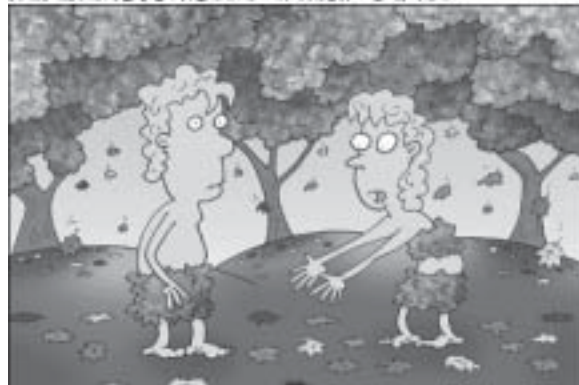

The summer season has just flown by and though most of us were kept quite busy, it seems like we didn't have nearly the time we needed to visit all the places we wanted to. Though our travels were slower this year than in times past, we did enjoy the scenery much more than before. We spent a minimum of three days in one spot before moving on.

Our travels took us through Williams, AZ where we spent a whole day touring the Grand Canyon. We hadn't been back there since 1967 when our kids were little; it has sure changed since then (the parking and commercial area, that is). Our tour was guided and we were led to places where most tourists don't go and the scenery was all God-inspired and breathtaking.

In planning for the Fall-Winter travels, be sure to take advantage of the rallies that have been scheduled for all of us. I know that we can't all take part in them but a lot of work has gone in to making the rallies a success.

You will find schedules for the Christmas Gathering and the other rallies on page 6 of this newsletter.

From the President

I recently received the following e-mail. I do not know how it reached me.

The Call to Prayer

When was the last time you went to church to pray? I am referring to praying with other believers as the primary focus. I am not talking about praying during a worship service or to open the sermon. I do not mean the prayers that are prayed over offerings or communion. I am deeply concerned that our church services have become so “good” that we don’t have time to pray. The focus in preparing for church has become to make it attractive and appealing and even sensual in some cases. I am not against great worship or preaching, but whatever happened to going to church to pray? I have become convinced through these past 25 days of prayer that one of the reasons prayer has been relegated to a special meeting category is because corporate prayer is not a big selling point that draws crowds. So, I cautiously pose the next questions: Are we losing our passion to pray because of selfish ambition and competition in the church? Is it because the focus has been diverted to offering the best programs and social events? Has the focus become to offer the most entertaining worship and un-offensive sermons? Is it because we have delegated that job to pastors, elders and to intercessors?

Or even more tragic, is it that we’ve stopped praying in churches because we’ve stopped believing in the power of prayer or expecting prayer to produce results or solve problems? Are we no longer dependant on God? Is there an underlying core belief from “the world” that has subtly weaved into the church that we do not really need God? Most would gasp in shock at the thought. But is it true?

Can you imagine the disciples saying when they came together that prayer did not fit into the service order because the music or the sermon needed to take precedent? This is what they believed about prayer: “But we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word.” (Acts 6:4)

The early church learned the importance of maintaining prayer as the top priority for gathering together. Their very lives depended upon it. The first believers knew that if their lives did not evolve from prayer that they were vulnerable to spiritual warfare tactics of the devil. They were fully aware that they faced a battle with Satan every day and that they needed the power of God gained through prayer to live victorious. That is why they placed prayer, accompanied with the administration of the word as the highest priority.

Even after the church grew, they joined themselves together to pray. They decided instead of spending their days administrating that they should increase their time of prayer and dedication to the word of God. This is not heard

...and the Vice-President Yep, Two Ways About It

“You have seen many things, but have paid no attention; your ears are open, but you hear nothing.” (Isa. 42:20 TNIV)

Have you heard the old saying, no two ways about it? Well, I beg to differ if you’ll allow me.

A few weeks past, my 5 year old grandson and I were down at our little brook enjoying a beautiful early summer afternoon. All at once, he shrieked, “Ants! I hate ants!” And he turned and began stomping up the hill.

“Wait, a minute!” This old grandma called to him. “Sit here with me and let’s just watch them for a minute. Look how they work together, how they form a trail and take food back to their whole family. They work and don’t tire. They are always so busy and eager!” As my grandson took time to listen to me and consider my words and turn his attention to my way of thinking, he began to see the ants with new eyes...eyes of wonder instead of eyes of hate and disgust.

Aren’t we a lot like that? Don’t we often only see situations with our own eyes and our own selfish motivations and beliefs? Don’t we need new eyes to understand all of God’s truth for us? Don’t we need an understanding of God’s purpose and truths to grasp how to look at a situation without panic, disgust or even fear? In every circumstance and in every thought and feeling and what we deem as right or only one way....there are always two ways about it, aren’t there? There is our way and there is God’s way.

Each circumstance I find myself surrounded by, I am learning to practice seeing it with “God’s eyes and hand” instead of only my own. When I determine to do that, I am choosing God’s way and putting Him first, which is one way that I can love the Lord with all my heart—putting His way, His will and His law first in my life.

“How do I begin to place God’s way first in my life?” You might ask. Remember my grandson and his disgust of ants? What did he have to do to begin to look at them in a different way? First he had to listen. Are you listening to God’s Word? Then he had to believe what his grandma told him. Do you believe the truths that God is sharing in His Word with you? And lastly, he had to give up his way of thinking and be willing to see ants from his grandma’s perspective. Have you begun to look at every situation with God’s eyes and heart and His will and way?

Today, choose to listen, to believe, to apply a willing heart to God’s perspective. Take time today and open your eyes, pay attention, be willing to hear and to change your way to God’s way.

Prayer Requests

Prayer requests are listed in the order received and are provided so that God's Army of Intercessors can bombard Heaven with prayers.

"The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." James 5:16

1. Pray for family members to come to the full knowledge of salvation in the Lord Jesus Christ.
2. Pray for all Escapee members that have health issues.
3. Pray for our President, his cabinet, the Congress and all our national leaders and all in authority that they will be lead by the Holy Spirit in all their actions. We are at a time in our lives like no other time before. Our leaders need our prayers.
4. Pray for our Armed Forces everywhere and especially those in Iraq and Afghanistan.
5. Pray that our education system will again allow prayer in school. Since prayer has been removed from schools there has been a continual upswing in juvenile problems.

Many of you know The Too Crazy Ladies. Keep Red in your prayers for a rapid recovery from hip surgery.

Beth and Red were dining out on August 1st when Red fell on a step in the restaurant and broke her hip. She had hip replacement surgery on August 2nd and is presently convalescing. She is expected to be in rehab for approximately two months.

We were meeting Beth & Red last night for dinner when Red fell on a step in the restaurant and broke her hip. She will be having hip replacement surgery this afternoon and will be convalescing for about two months.

Healing

Do we really believe God for healing in our bodies? Does He really heal? What does the Bible say?

Then your light shall break forth like the morning, Your healing shall spring forth speedily, And your righteousness shall go before you; The glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. (Isa. 58:8 NKJV)

Behold, I will bring it health and healing; I will heal them and reveal to them the abundance of peace and truth. (Jer. 33:6 NKJV)

And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people. (Mat. 4:23 NKJV)

News & Views

Missy and I have been on the road full time almost three years and although we have seen a lot of Fathers majestic creation I have begun to sense something missing. We have visited many different ministries, groups, gatherings and fellowships; most of which have different types of praise, worship and presentation of the Word. We have experienced the very "Hard Rock" praise to the very formal "Smells and Bells", from the informal "come as you are" to the Robed High Church formality. When I finished reading the following August 28th Daily devotional from Oswald Chambers devotional "My Utmost for His Highest", The Holy Spirit began to direct my attention to my prayer life. I invite you to read through it and see what He would say to you.

The Purpose of Prayer "... one of His disciples said to Him, 'Lord, teach us to pray ...'" (Luke 11:1). Prayer is not a normal part of the life of the natural man. We hear it said that a person's life will suffer if he doesn't pray, but I question that. What will suffer is the life of the Son of God in him, which is nourished not by food, but by prayer. When a person is born again from above, the life of the Son of God is born in him, and he can either starve or nourish that life. Prayer is the way that the life of God in us is nourished. Our common ideas regarding prayer are not found in the New Testament. We look upon prayer simply as a means of getting things for ourselves, but the biblical purpose of prayer is that we may get to know God Himself. "Ask, and you will receive ..." (John 16:24). We complain before God, and sometimes we are apologetic or indifferent to Him, but we actually ask Him for very few things. Yet a child exhibits a magnificent boldness to ask! Our Lord said, "... unless you ... become as little children ..." (Matthew 18:3). Ask and God will do. Give Jesus Christ the opportunity and the room to work. The problem is that no one will ever do this until he is at his wits' end. When a person is at his wits' end, it no longer seems to be a cowardly thing to pray; in fact, it is the only way he can get in touch with the truth and the reality of God Himself. Be yourself before God and present Him with your problems—the very things that have brought you to your wits' end. But as long as you think you are self-sufficient, you do not need to ask God for anything. To say that "prayer changes things" is not as close to the truth as saying, "Prayer changes me and then I change things." God has established things so that prayer, on the basis of redemption, changes the way a person looks at things. Prayer is not a matter of changing things externally, but one of working miracles in a person's inner nature.

We traveled to Midland, MI to attend a church conference and while there, we took part in the Great Lakes Chapter 6 rally. During the rally, we meet up with Bill and Judy Bowne, SKP 37387, members of the Christian Fellowship BOF. We had many fine chats with this wonderful couple, full time RVers. It was very refreshing to discuss everything in the context of our Christian beliefs.

Great Place to Go

I know this is not very much like religious news but I thought I would pass on to everyone where we vacationed this summer. Our sons (all four of them) got their heads together and decided it was time to have a family (Schinke) reunion. They found a wonderful place near Nashville, IN. We parked in the Brown County Park just outside of Nashville. We were about five miles back in the woods to a superior campground. We were only there for seven days but we were able to play golf on four days of the reunion, and reminisce and just plain relax the rest of the time..

What made it news-worthy to me was that we were able to do a lot of meditating when we were back at the campground, thanking God for our lives and for the lifestyle we have. The Yes, back in the woods!

Lord has been very good to us, even when we had major breakdowns coming across country from California this past Spring. He has provided for us daily and has been right on time. Never did we have to wonder whether or not He would be there for us.

They're Back! Those Wonderful Church Bulletins!

Thank God for church ladies with typewriters. These sentences appeared in church bulletins or were announced in church services. (Summer, 2007 Release)

The Fasting & Prayer Conference includes meals.

The sermon this morning: 'Jesus Walks on the Water.' 'The sermon tonight: 'Searching for Jesus.'

Our youth basketball team is back in action Wednesday at 8 PM in the recreation hall. Come out and watch us kill Christ the King.

Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.

The peacemaking meeting scheduled for today has been canceled due to a conflict.

Remember in prayer the many that are sick of our community. Smile at someone who is hard to love. Say 'Hello' to someone who doesn't care much about you.

Don't let worry kill you off—let the Church help.

Miss Charlene Mason sang 'I will not pass this way again,' giving obvious pleasure to the congregation.

For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.

Next Thursday there will be tryouts for the choir. They need all the help they can get.

The Rector will preach his farewell message, after which the choir will sing: 'Break Forth Into Joy'

Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24 in the church. So ends a friendship that began in their school days.

At the evening service tonight, the sermon topic will be 'What Is Hell?' Come early and listen to our choir practice.

Eight new choir robes are currently needed due to the addition of several new members and to the deterioration of some older ones.

Scouts are saving aluminum cans, bottles and other items to be recycled. Proceeds will be used to cripple children.

of in modern times. Prayer is not the priority item it used to be or that it should be. We are too busy doing church and building churches to pray. We spend too much time and resources on our systems and programs trying to gather a crowd that enhances our image and our budgets.

Nor is prayer the main reason we gather, as it was for the original churches. If a poll were taken among Christians as to why they gather today, there would be a myriad of answers, most of which would have little to do with prayer. We gather and do a lot of stuff on Sundays and many other days, but most often it is not to pray. I believe this grieves God.

What are we going to do about this tragic conclusion? Is it going to require a national or world-wide disaster to bring the Church back to its knees? If a foreign nation were to invade this nation tomorrow, taking away our freedoms, comforts and props, the churches would be packed with people for one reason...to pray.

I am making an appeal that we not wait for tragedy to bring us to our knees, but that we would be awakened again to pro-active dependence on God and get our priorities re-aligned to what is truly important.

Prayer is what this nation is founded upon. Prayer is what precedes a move of God. Prayer is what overturns governments and kingdoms. Prayer is what changes history. I CALL YOU TO PRAYER!

Have any of you had the feeling that we are missing something? Could it be that God is trying to get our attention? It would be great to hear your response. Please make an attempt to communicate by doing the following: Do you want to stay in daily touch with the Christian Fellowship BOF? You now can, via e-mail. All you have to do is send an e-mail to christianbof-subscribe@yahoogroups.com.

When you receive a reply you will be able to send messages to christianbof@yahoogroups.com that everyone who subscribes to it will receive.

This will allow you to send messages to one address instead of having to try to remember the addresses of many people. If you have a pressing prayer need, a praise report, or just want to share something that's going on in your family, you can send it and everyone will be made aware right away instead of having to wait for a newsletter to be published.

Don't forget to check out our Christian Fellowship BOF website at <http://www.escapees.com/christianfellowship> then click on the link at the bottom which takes you to our main website at <http://www.christianbof.com> or you can go directly to the main website, if you so desire.

I'm not sure what you have done about getting into this group, but the above is the way it's done. It's not a "chat room" but provides us the opportunity to share with others who have subscribed.

Yep, there are two ways about it—your way or God's way!

Lord, I lay down myself and yield all of me to You, Your hand, your truths and your will and way in my life. Thank You that your power is great enough to do miraculous work in my life. Your love is of greater measure than I can hope or dream or imagine. Help me Lord to begin to see with new eyes more of who you are. Give me greater understanding of your way. Help me to walk in your truth this day with a whole heart and new eyes of perspective.

Questions: What area do you need to work on in order to put God's way first in your life? By listening, believing and changing our perspectives.

How are you putting God first in your life?

Beauty of the Morning

How many times have you arisen in the morning and said, "Wow, what a beautiful day?" I awoke this morning and saw the sun shining, the birds and squirrels playing and said to myself, "How lucky can one person be? Here I am, wonderfully created by God and I get to absorb all this beauty daily."

I've wondered over and over what have I done to deserve this? Then realize that God created me for His pleasure, just as He has created you. He put us here so that we would praise and worship Him. Part of that praise and worship is to wake up in the morning and thank Him for all of His creation.

We know that there are problems that we must face each day, however that for every problem there is an answer. We shouldn't whine and cry when we are in the midst of a problem but rather we should praise and worship Him because we are coming out of the problem—our needs are being met.

Geese Make it Flying Together

Have you ever wondered why the Canadian geese fly only in the "V" formation? For years, specialists in aerodynamics wondered the same thing.

Two engineers calibrated in a wind tunnel what happens in such a "V" formation. Each goose, in flapping his wings, creates an upward lift for the goose that follows. When all the geese do their part in the "V" formation, the whole flock has a 71% greater flying range than if each bird flew alone. Each depends upon the other to get to its destination.

Something else—When a goose begins to lag behind, the others "honk" it back into place.

Now, let us learn from God's animal creation. The church needs to fly in a spiritual "V" formation, "honking" one another into steadfastness and faithfulness. And it must be at least 71% easier to live the faithful Christian life flying with the flock as opposed to going it alone. "Let us consider one another, to provoke unto love and to good works" (Hebrews 10:24).

Gatherings/Rallies

October 31–November 3, 2009: Death Valley; Death Valley Days follow Nov 4–8. (Need host for this rally)

Come one; come all to Death Valley Gathering Rally! If you have never experienced Death Valley in the fall or had opportunity to enjoy the Death Valley 49er Days with all the activities, plan now, today, to join us October 31 to November 4th with the 49er Days following from November 4 through 8th. Here is why I say plan now! Welcome to these new members. We hope you will join in with us at some of the upcoming Gatherings/Rallies.

To keep in touch with other members of the BOF, note the paragraph entitled BOF Chat Group above. We encourage all members to take advantage of this group. If some have joined the BOF and their name has been omitted, please notify the editor.

Ministry Opportunity

The Christian Fellowship BOF has received a request from Rose Jaimes, the Braille Administrator for Lutheran Braille Workers. LBW is a ministry made of over 5,000 volunteers who produce and ship Braille and Large Print Bibles to blind and vision impaired people free of charge worldwide.

She is looking for volunteers who like to travel in their RV and who are willing to visit their nearly 190 Braille centers to do maintenance on the centers Braille Presses. LBW would provide the training and the tools.

Feel free to contact her if you are interested. Sounds like a great ministry opportunity!

CARE

One of the main aims of the Christian BOF Fellowship is to be a giving group of individuals. Many of us have realized the importance of being charitable. It comes back many times over. We need to remember that we can't outgive God. We try to be a major contributor to CARE because CARE is there for us when we need them.

Every member who has donated to CARE through the Christian Fellowship BOF, is to be thanked for their participation. Total contributions to CARE by the BOF as of June 30, 2009 were $9,124.60!!

We are proving that God's law of reciprocity works! As we give, we are given more to give.

As an aside, the Great Lakes Chapter, Chapter 6 has given $41,000 to CARE as of September 6, 2009.

Cell Phone vs. Bible

Ever wonder what would happen if we treated our Bible like we treat our cell phone?

What if we carried it around in our purses or pockets?

What if we flipped through it several times a day?

What if we turned back to go get it if we forgot it?

What if we used it to receive messages from the text?

What if we treated it like we couldn't live without it?

What if we gave it to kids as gifts?

What if we used it when we traveled?

What if we used it in case of emergency?

This is something to make you go....hmm...where is my Bible?

Oh, and one more thing.

Unlike our cell phone, we don't have to worry about our Bible being disconnected because Jesus already paid the bill.

Makes you stop and think 'where are my priorities? And no dropped calls!

"If GOD brings you to it, HE will bring you through it."

Court Order

You have been accused of accepting Jesus Christ as your Lord and savior and bombarding God with prayers!

You are hereby sentenced to Everlasting Life ,

No bail, No Appeal. You have been labeled Blessed and hereby detained in God's custody forever, Amen.

You have been destined to make it and you shall surely achieve all your goals.

Sorrow looks back, worry looks around, But FAITH looks up. Lord, grant me patience to endure my blessing.

When the devil comes knocking at your door, simply say. "Jesus, could you get that for me please"?

The Editor's Corner

Sometimes, when material is submitted for publication in the newsletter, I have to change the material to fit the available space. Please note that this is not done to affect the submission but merely to make it fit. Occasionally, I will change the report provided for publication, much to the chagrin of the one who submitted it. Sometimes, though trying to be objective, I will omit something that the person submitting the material felt was very important. If this occurs to any item you submit, please understand that I try to publish everything that is submitted, only limited by available column space and what may be thought to be not in the best interests of the member readers.

Membership Expiration

To help you remember when your dues expire, those members who receive their newsletter via snail mail, look at your mailing label. On the top line is a year: 2009, 2010, 2011, etc. That indicates that your dues are paid through December 31 of that year.

For those members who receive their newsletter via e-mail or download it from the website, there is no way of indicating when your dues are expiring other than receiving an e-mail reminder from the Membership Chairman that your dues are about to expire.

Address Updates

I continue to have newsletters returned to me because of faulty addresses. This costs me postage (my mail is sent from Livingston) as well as extra postage for the BOF. I don't want anyone to miss out on the information provided through the newsletter so it is important that all members keep me apprised of changes in membership profiles. It's one of your benefits.

Stay Up-to-Date

Did you know you can keep up to date with the BOF happenings/events? All you have to do is call 888-757-7701, Ext 8084.

Words to Live By

It is easier to preach ten sermons than it is to live one.

The good Lord didn't create anything without a purpose, but mosquitoes come close.

People are funny; they want the front of the bus, middle of the road, and back of the church.
